

AD HOC ANNOUNCEMENT ACCORDING TO SEC. 15 WPHG

DIALOG SEMICONDUCTOR AND ATMEL CORPORATION AMEND MERGER AGREEMENT WITH RESPECT TO VOTING REQUIREMENT

29 September 2015 – Today, Dialog Semiconductor (XTRA: DLG) and Atmel Corporation (NASDAQ: ATML) amended the merger agreement that Dialog and Atmel announced on 20 September 2015. Pursuant to this amendment, Dialog and Atmel clarified that the only required vote of Dialog shareholders will be to authorize the board of directors of Dialog to allot and issue the ordinary shares underlying the American Depositary Shares to be issued in connection with the acquisition of Atmel. The vote required to approve this matter is a simple majority of the ordinary shares present and voting at the meeting in person or by proxy. This amendment was based on Dialog's determination that an amendment of its articles of association will not be required to complete the transaction. The merger agreement amendment deletes the reference to a possible articles amendment and the 75% vote that would have been required for such an amendment. Dialog expects that its shareholder meeting will be held in the fourth quarter of 2015.
